INVITATION

Dear Mr. Orhan Tekeoglu,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the Selection Committee of the 43rd Kyiv International Film Festival «Molodist» we have the honor to let you know that your film “I loved you so much” has been selected to the special program "Films across the Borders" that represents best films that were produced in the Eastern Europe region.

«Molodist» is an internationally recognized specialized film festival aimed to support the cinema of young directors. Festival's competition program consists of sections of student films, first short films (fiction film, animation, documentary) and first full-feature films. We give a dynamic of development of the most important trends of a young cinema from all over the world.

In 1993 FIAPF officially registered «Molodist» as a specialized International Festival, which activity completely corresponds with international standards. According to FIAPF information and to such sources as Screen, Variety and Hollywood Reporter «Molodist» is one of most important film-events in Eastern Europe. Since 2013 Molodist became BAFTA recognized film festival. In 2012 almost 320 films (54 titles in 3 competition sections) have been presented from more than 40 countries.

We have a big pleasure of inviting one film representative to be our guest and to present the film at «Molodist» International Film Festival personally. We are happy to offer you 3 nights in the festival hotel within the dates October 19-23.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Andriy Khalpakhchi
